Darla Sherman grew up in Oregon and now lives in Washington DC area. She lived in Africa as a missionary, and was a speaker at an evangelistic campaign in India. Darla is passionate about sharing Jesus wherever God opens an opportunity. Telling Bible stories for both old and young is one of her delights. Her most popular topic she has studied for over 30 years is Prayer. Darla's life has been filled with Divine appointments which inspires her to tell stories of Jesus and what He has done and desires to do in each of our lives. Walking in nature is her favorite place to converse with God. Darla and her husband Doug love camping and hiking. They have two adult children and one granddaughter.

Julia Bellman has served in ministry since 2013 when she became Literature Ministries Director in New England. She now serves as Literature Ministries Director for the New York Conference and is the Speaker/Director of a supporting ministry, Family Health & Education Resources, through which she and teams of missionary canvassers reach people suffering under the yoke of depression, addiction, and general health and wellness challenges. Julia and her husband enjoy spending time enjoying "God's book of nature" hiking and exploring new country together. She and her husband of seventeen years share six grown children and expecting their fifth and sixth grandchildren in October of this year.
